Participants' participation is required
 1:30 p.m. - Round Robin Competition

Round Robin Rules

1. The Junior and Senior overall winner of the showmanship contest in each barn shall compete in the Round Robin Contest. A training session will be held at 11:30 a.m. Friday, the day of the Round Robin Contest. All Junior and Senior contest winners must attend this 11:30 a.m. session to be held in the Livestock Trade Center. For livestock risk management purposes, each winner will show all other contestants how to safely handle and show their animal. All contest participants will receive pre-training to help ensure the safety of each member and animal participating in the contest. Pre-training is required by all Round Robin participants.
2. Junior members must have turned 8 years old before October 1, 2017; senior members must have turned 13 years old before October 1, 2017.
3. The following divisions will be included in the Round Robin Competition: Junior Beef, Senior Beef, Junior Dairy, Senior Dairy, Junior Swine, Senior Swine, Junior Sheep, Senior Sheep, Junior Dairy Goat, Senior Dairy Goat, Junior Horse, Senior Horse, Junior Poultry, and Senior Poultry, Junior Rabbit, and Senior Rabbit. The winner of each will advance to their Junior and Senior Round Robin Contests on Thursday afternoon.
4. The Overall Livestock Showmanship Contest will begin at 1:30 p.m. Friday. A system of station judging shall be used, with one judge at each of the 8 class stations. The judge's discretion determines scoring.
5. Once a member has won the Round Robin (Jr. or Sr. Grand Championship, he or she is ineligible to compete in that division Grand Championship again.
6. The class winner always gets that premium award and ribbon, but if they have already won their Round Robin (Jr. or Sr.) Grand Championship, then the next in line in that class competes., You are not eligible to compete in a Round Robin Grand Championship after you've won it once.
7. Minimum acceptable dress for Livestock Showmanship shall be long-sleeved shirt, shoes (no tennis shoes), and long pants. Exhibitors should dress according to showmanship dress codes for their entered species.
